

Larry Fichter Memorial Scholarship

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial help to a student who is a member of any United Methodist Church in the Griswold Community School district. Any high school senior is encouraged to apply. Consideration for awarding the scholarship will be weighted towards the student with the greatest financial need.

Applications may be obtained at the Griswold United Methodist Church secretary's office. Completed application should be returned to the church by April 15.

The scholarship will be awarded during church services at the Griswold United Methodist Church on Memorial Day weekend. Funds will be awarded upon successful completion of the first semester of college.
